

Sharyon Culberson

7B, Chicago, IL • +1 773-885-2984 • sharyon.anita@gmail.com

Writer/Creator/Facilitator

A writer / content creator dedicated to social justice, Sharyon A. Culberson is an experienced facilitator and moderator of conversations that promote and inspire a more egalitarian society.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Sharyon Anita, Inc. • Chicago, Illinois • Full-time • 07/2018 - Present

Content Creator

- Presented bespoke DE&I programming to the House of Representatives
- Presented curriculum on creating a respectful workplace for the US Forest Service employees and management, focusing on unconscious bias, gender based discrimination, bullying, and hazing in the workplace

Catharsis Productions • Chicago, IL, USA • 01/2016 - 12/2020

Writer/Creator/Facilitator

- Created and facilitated workshops and conversations with students and employees on reducing bias and micro-aggressions within campus and corporate environments.

Teech Foundation • Chicago, IL, USA • 01/2018 - 12/2018

Creator/Developer

- Created and developed equity-based curriculum and programming workshops geared toward adults in recovery returning to the work force.

Chicago Children's Theater • Chicago, IL, USA • 01/2017 - 12/2017

Consultant

- Assisted with the social-justice based curriculum development of programming for middle-school at-risk youth, to run concurrently with arts programming.

EDUCATION

Bachelor Of Science

Florida A&M University • 12/1998

PUBLICATIONS

Daily Affirmations: To Stay in Relationship with Joy

Self • 07/2023

Black Joy Journal

Self • 06/2023

“Into a Black Beyond: Authoring Our Future”

Contextos • 11/2022

“The Invisibility of the Black Woman” (White Paper)

Catharsis Productions • 02/2021

“Black Imagination” (collection)

McSweeney’s • 11/2020

SKILLS

Content Creation, Curriculum Development, Panel Moderation, Presentation, Screenwriting, Social Justice, Tiktok